

University Vehicles

All University vehicles will be driven by Wilberforce University employees only during the performance of their work for the University.

No University vehicles will be:

- driven for personal use,
- taken home for the night when on-call, or
- taken home for any reason at the end of the work day.