

Oldest Living Wilberforce University Graduate Turns 100 Today

Thomas E. Taylor, who graduated from Wilberforce University in 1958, celebrates his 100th Birthday today making him the oldest living Wilberforce alumnus

A celebration of his milestone will be today from 4 to 6:30 p.m. at the Dayton Cultural and RTA Transit Center at 40 Edwin C. Moses Blvd.

Mr. Taylor is a retired Supervisor of Municipal Athletics for the City of Dayton. During his college years he received a B.S. in History and secondary in Physical Education. He met his Wilberforce sweetheart, Frances Tibbles, and they were married. She is now deceased.

Mr. Taylor, also known as “Uncle Tommy,” continues to live in the Dayton community and is quite active. He enjoys tending his large garden at the Dayton VA Center, and attends Wayman A.M.E. Church. He is a proud member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc.

For additional information, contact Clarice Chattman who is organizing the event at 937-219-8125.

Karla Garrett Harshaw, Loaned Executive, Wilberforce University Development Office, 937-708-5710